Arrest in Connection with Recent Stabbing

Manchester Police have made an arrest in connection with a stabbing that took place earlier this month.

On December 17, 2021 at approximately 1:10 AM Manchester Police responded to the rear of 168 Merrimack St. for a reported stabbing. Officers located a 32 year old female with multiple stab wounds. The male suspect fled on foot prior to Police arrival. Detectives were provided with a description of the offender and during their investigation, were able to review nearby surveillance video that captured the suspect fleeing the area.

At 8 PM, (12/17) while conducting follow up in the general area, Detectives observed a subject that matched the description of the suspect from this investigation. When Detectives attempted to speak with this subject, he took off running and a brief foot pursuit ensued.

The male subject was subsequently taken into custody and identified as 18 year old Johan Geovanny Rosario of Manchester, NH. Rosario was charged with Attempted Second Degree Murder, Possession of a Controlled Drug, and Resisting Arrest. Rosario is currently being held without bail pending his arraignment.

The investigation into this incident is ongoing. Anyone with information is encouraged to call the Manchester Police Department at 603-668-8711 or the Manchester Crimeline at 603-624-4040 / www.manchestercrimeline.org.
